It is reckoned in this country that the attitude of President Yuan Shi-Kai in the next must have some hearing in the present controversy. He has for years maintained a friendly attitude toward Christianity, and was one of the three vice-relys who interposed at the time of the Boker uprising to protect missionaries and native Christians from violence. He has placed two nieces for education if the Methodist school at Tientain, and has personally made thereit gifts to schools of the London Missionary Society. His portrait is on the walls of the list mamed society, as one of the finat named society, as one of its foremost benefactors. In an interview with Bisbop Bashford not long since his stated definitely that it was his curviction that Christian ethics are necessary to the building of a new China. His re-PROGRESS IN MEXICO
